The Ideal Man

If you could describe the Ideal Man, what would you say?

Athletic. Loyal. Understanding. Funny. Humble. Open to diversity.

These were just a few of the responses we received when we spent a week surveying students at Queens College about what their Ideal Man would be like during an outreach event we held entitled "The Ideal Man."

Around 75 surveys were filled out, and then students were invited back to an evening where we shared the results, offered free food, and had some giveaways. During the evening, we also shared about Jesus Christ being the only true Ideal Man. We then used the surveys (and are still using them) to sit down with students to listen to their stories and share more about Christ.

Michelle and Ashley (two of our staff women) and Aniska sat down with Erika (girl in the very center of the picture above) to followup on the survey she had filled out. After talking with her for a while and sharing the Gospel, Erika accepted Christ!! Since making this decision, Ashley and Michelle have been meeting with her every week to help her grow in her faith and she even came to church with Michelle last week. She has also agreed to let Michelle lead a Bible study in her dorm room in a dorm that we have been praying to see something started in for quite a while!

Aniska, who shared the Gospel with her, is the girl we shared about last month that shared the Gospel for the first time in Baltimore at Winter Conference. How cool that God used her to impact the life of a girl on her very own campus!

It is so fun to see how the Lord is moving at Queens College! Pray that we would see Him moving in the same way at St. John's University and other universities in Queens!

Thank you for being a part of life-change happening in NYC. We couldn't do this without your prayers and support!

Prayer Requests:

- Brynn safely arrived on February 6. April and Brynn are both doing well.
- Blake had a followup with his cardiologist and they are 95% sure the hole in his heart has closed! We will followup next year to be sure.
- Pray as we followup with students who filled out surveys at the Ideal Man event.
- Students from colleges all over the US are coming the next 3 weeks for Spring Break trips in NYC - pray they will want to come back long-term, that it would advance ministry on our campuses, and for Christ's name to be made known.
