From Death to Life

"I saw two dead people come to life!"

Ed, was talking to Drew, a leader with Cru at NC State, about how Drew had saw the Lord work in the past few weeks. Curious, Ed asked Drew to explain more.

"First, there was Noah. It was midnight, we were eating pizza, and he began to open up. He shared about going to church occasionally when he was younger with his friend but wanting to know more about Christianity now and that being the reason he was coming to my Bible study. After I shared the Gospel, he made a decision to place his faith in Christ!!

Later that week, Noah approached me and said that he wanted to hear the Gospel again because the first time he had been disingenuous. I shared it again, and this time, his prayer was genuine. I have been spending a lot of time with him, showing him what it means to be a Christian, and it has been fun to see life change in him.

Second, there was Bob. Every week, I have discipleship time with Ryan and Andrew. This week, we went to randomly find someone with whom to get into spiritual conversation. We had two people engaging in conversation and one person praying for us in the background.

As we approached Bob, he started sharing about how he had grown up Catholic but that mass had never meant anything to him like it had to his parents. As we talked about his uncertainty about whether he would spend eternity in heaven, I shared some Bible verses, talked about Jesus, and shared that our salvation isn't dependent on anything we do. His eyes lit up as he shared 'Christ paid the debt in full so that I can spend eternity with God in heaven and as an outpouring of thankfulness of God's grace, I will live a godly life.' It was so fun to see it click and hear him express appreciation for what Christ had done! Pray the Lord will be pursuing him and I will be able to continue connecting with him."

While it is fun to see students place their faith in Christ, it is even more fun to seeing your students take steps of faith to share their faith and see someone accept Christ.

Thank you for investing in us as well as these students. God is moving in their lives!

Prayer Requests:

- Praise - we are continuing to see students place their faith in Christ!!
- Pray that we would have 150 students attend our Encounter winter conference...we have about 85 as of now!
- Pray for our staff and students to finish out well as we near the finish line for this semester!
- Pray for wisdom as to where we should serve the Lord in the future.
